

DOWSEY SLAIN, SAY U. S. AGENTS

Secret Service Agent Murdered for Men Higher Up Is Theory.

Seattle, Wash., July 12.—That Fred A. Dowsey, government secret agent, was murdered before he could file papers that might have sent prominent men to the pen is the opinion of Secret Service men now in Seattle who are working on the case.

Valuable papers which were said to have been in Dowsey's possession when he was killed the morning of May 2, are missing. Dowsey had been investigating an alleged swindle in connection with the U. S. Shipping Board which involved millions of dollars.

New York, July 12.—Dr. George W. Dowsey, brother of Fred A. Dowsey, who died under mysterious circumstances in Seattle, said today he was convinced his brother was murdered.

The autopsy held after the body was brought here, Dr. Dowsey said, revealing a semi-circular wound on the head upon which an operation had been performed apparently to remove a blood clot. The incision, the doctor said, had been sewed beneath the skin to give the impression that only a skin cut had occurred. The doctor said he knew nothing of the brother's occupation except that he was in the employ of the government.

VERDUN VETERAN HAS LONGING FOR FIGHTS

Richmond, Va., July 12.—John Conley of Nortonville, Va., today is heralded by the local United States Marine recruiting station as the most unusual recruit ever taken in. The embryo devil dog snarled into the recruiting office and inquired as to the method of procedure necessary for enlistment.

While filling out his application it developed that he was an enlisted man in the American army for several years and saw service at Verdun and Argonne Wood. He was wounded at the last named place and sent home, discharged, in perfect physical shape.

He passed physical examination and enlisted for a period of four years.

TROOPS KEEP ORDER AFTER 2 RACE RIOTS

Dublin, Ga., July 12.—Quiet prevailed here today, following a night of threatened race trouble. A company of eighty home guards, called into service to protect Rob Ashley, negro, charged with killing one and wounding another white man last Sunday, remained on duty at the county jail.

With several hundred white men and negroes lined up on opposite sides of the streets, serious trouble appeared imminent at one time last night. Only prompt action of Capt. L. C. Pope, commanding the guardsmen, prevented an outbreak.

Longview, Tex., July 12.—Mayor Bodenheimer today warned all negroes to stay away from Longview until excitement caused by yesterday's race riots, in which four white men were injured, six negro houses burned, and several negroes reported killed or wounded, had subsided.

Troops patrolled the streets and were bivouacked in the public square. Four negroes are in jail.

Gaynor's Daughter Asks Divorce in Reno Courts

Reno, Nev., July 12.—Edith Augusta Vinzut, daughter of former Mayor William Gaynor of New York, is plaintiff in a divorce action on file today against Henry Kermit Vinzut, New York financier. Mrs. Vinzut charges cruelty. Vinzut has filed an answer, denying the charges.

The Vinzuts were married in 1910 after an elopement. They have a daughter, Mrs. Ralph H. Islam. Mrs. Vinzut has lived in Reno since May.

SEEK TWO YOUTHS AS MAN'S SLAYER

New York, July 12.—With the death here this afternoon of Gardiner C. Hull, from wounds inflicted when he was attacked in his downtown office yesterday afternoon, the New York police sent out a general alarm for the arrest of Edward O'Brien, 18, and Edward Paige, 20, delivery boys at the stationery store of Hull and Depisch, who are said to have disappeared.

The two boys were said to have been with Hull just before he was attacked. They failed to appear at work today.

THRIFT RALLY TO AID WORKERS

First of Series Will Be Held Tuesday at Virginia Shipbuilding Plant.

Thrift workers will stage the first of a series of thrift rallies to be held in various industrial organizations at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, Alexandria, Va., next Tuesday at noon.

Through the co-operation of Norris D. Bowen of the corporation the 4500 employees of the plant will be invited to attend. The speakers will be William Mather Lewis, vice director of the savings division of the Treasury, and Arthur E. Bacon, one of the local War Savings Stamp men, in charge of the women's thrift work in the District, will sing.

To laud the thrift workers, Secretary of the Treasury Geary has written employees of the department urging them to adopt the principles of the thrift campaign, not only to aid the government, but to insure their own prosperity and independence.

ARMY NEEDS RECRUITS FOR MEDICS AND Q. M. C.

Authority has been received by the recruiting office at 509 Tenth street northwest to enlist men in the Medical Department and Quartermaster Corps for a period of one year, irrespective of previous military experience.

Enlistments in various branches of the service were unusually large last week, and are expected to increase. Among those accepted were: Walter P. Laughton, Mount Rainier, Md.; Bernard S. Cleveland, Mount Rainier, Md.; Eric Wurfel, Washington, D. C.; Horace W. Robinson, Orange, Va.; Ernest B. Bond, Brentwood, Md.; and James E. Grant, Richmond, Va.
